

21/10/2011

AMAZONE - BRUSSELS

— — — — 9.00-18.00

from cyborgs to facebook technological dreams { and feminist critiques }

sophia.be

belgian network for gender studies

PROGRAM

Simultaneous translation in English, French and Dutch will be provided (except for session 4).

REGISTRATION AND COFFEE

0.30

INTRODUCTION

9.00-9.30

Petra Meier {UA/co-president Sophia} and Sarah Sepulchre {UCL/Sophia}

SESSION 1 – THE AUGMENTED BODY

9.30-11.00

■■■ moderated by Annelies Decat {HIW/K.U.Leuven}

- Siggie Vertommen {University of Ghent} Politics of assisted reproduction in settler colonial societies: "Doing it the Israeli way"
- Nathalie Grandjean {Facultés de Namur} Des seins parfaits: performance et encorporations
- Riika Matala {University of Lapland} Power relations in designing gendered intelligent clothing
- Rachel Vuagniaux {Université de Genève} Robotique de 'care'

COFFEE BREAK

11.00-11.30

SESSION 2 – MEDIATED IDENTITIES

11.30-13.00

■■■ moderated by Sander De Ridder {UGent}

- Soraya Dodat {Université de La Réunion/EHESS Paris} Comment contourner la société du pardah sans l'ébranler? Une étude de #zarab, premier média des jeunes musulmans indo-réunionnais
- Marie Neihouser {Université Montpellier I} Femmes et blogs : l'autocensure de la parole politique
- Julia Roth {Humboldt University/University of Potsdam} "A legible Face on Facebook?": Gender and Decoloniality in the Internet
- Sandra Lemeilleur {Université Michel de Montaigne Bordeaux 3} Corps virtuel: corps ancillaire support de subjectivation

LUNCH

13.00-14.00

SESSION 3 – TECHNOLOGY IN PRACTICE → room 017

14.00-15.30 (runs parallel with session 4)

■■■ moderated by Patricia Vendramin {Fondation Travail-Université/UCL}

- Joëlle Palmieri {Institut d'Etudes politiques de Bordeaux} Technologies: produits du pouvoir et productrices d'impuissance
- Isabelle Collet {Université de Genève} Les informaticiennes, au croisement de la domination sexe/classe
- Anne Snick {Flora vzw/asbl} Is unequal access to science and technology itself a scientific problem? The gender analysis of work as a framework for transition towards a more egalitarian paradigm
- Sarah Gallez {Facultés de Namur} Les femmes dans les métiers de l'informatique: une double résistance discrète

SESSION 4 – STAGING THE SELF → room 207 (no translation)

14.00-15.30 (runs parallel with session 3)

■■■ moderated by Mylène Baum {UCL}

- Natacha Guyot {Paris III Sorbonne Nouvelle} Boomer 2004: the feminine and Cyborg metamorphosis
- Marion Coville {Université Paris 1} Woman - Gamer
- Géraldine Gourbe {Université de Nanterre/Ecole Supérieure des Beaux-Arts de Marseille et d'Annecy} Une éthique du désir est-elle envisageable dans l'espace virtuel?
- Marianne Cloutier {Université du Québec} Détournements scientifiques et biocyborgs artistiques

COFFEE BREAK

15.30-16.00

ROUNDTABLE: CAN TECHNOLOGY BE FEMINIST ?

16.00-17.30

■■■ moderated by Sarah Sepulchre {UCL/sophia}

Donestech.net -- Documentary & presentation of the project

Constant vzw -- Femke Snelting

Interface 3 -- Laure Lemaire, directrice

Séverine Dusollier {FUNDP, directrice du CRIDS}

Alison Woodward {VUB/Sophia}

DRINK

17.30

21/10/2011

AMAZONE - BRUSSELS

Middaglijnstraat 10
10, Rue du Méridien

from cyborgs to facebook technological dreams { and feminist critiques }

Sophia, the Belgian Network for Gender Studies, is organizing this international conference that will investigate the latest developments in theory and research on the many aspects of gender and technology from a feminist angle.

Information and registration (compulsory!)

sophia.be

BELGIAN NETWORK FOR GENDER STUDIES

{ info@sophia.be +32 2 229 38 69 }

ENTRANCE FEE, LUNCH AND COFFEE BREAKS:
€8 (sophia members & speakers) or €12