

(RE)CONNECTING GENDER STUDIES: a day to (re)connect early career researchers

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

November 13th - online

09:00 welcome

9:10 – 11:10 PARALLEL PANEL SESSIONS

1 (De)Constructing narratives and discourses

2 Movements and countermovements

3 Negotiating social norms and boundaries

11:10 – 11:40 parallel sessions wrap-up

11:40 – 12:10 SLOW NETWORKING

12:10 – 12:15 CONCLUSION

This conference is organized by Sophia's Junior Network, which brings together early-career academics who are interested in or focused on feminist research and gender studies in Belgium. Would you like to be part of this network? Do not hesitate to contact us via info@sophia.be.

(RE)CONNECTING GENDER STUDIES: a day to (re)connect early career researchers

PANEL SESSIONS 1 (De)Constructing narratives and discourses

Boreham Caroline (ENS Lyon)

Teaching intersectionality through Zadie Smith's Swing Time

Van den Bossche Sven (UGent)

Fictional transgender narratives in postwar Dutch literature

Walker Carole (UCLouvain)

The Institutionalisation of the fight against gender-based violence: Interactions between the narratives of sexual violence victims and the transformations of a professional ecology in the Brussels Region

Wallaert Sigrid (UGent)

The topic of women's anger connected to Miranda Fricker's concept of epistemic injustice

Van Hove Hannah (VUB)

"Belonging nowhere"?: British experimental women writers and the politics of marginalisation

CHAIR: Caroline Simon (UCLouvain) & Tinne Claes (KULeuven)

This conference is organized by Sophia's Junior Network, which brings together early-career academics who are interested in or focused on feminist research and gender studies in Belgium. Would you like to be part of this network? Do not hesitate to contact us via info@sophia.be.

(RE)CONNECTING GENDER STUDIES: a day to (re)connect early career researchers

PANEL SESSIONS 2 Movements and countermovements

Polatdemir Asli (Uni Bremen)

Websites of gender movements in Turkey: following online alliances

Dag Deniz (Uni Bremen)

Familialisation of Women's and Gender Studies at Turkish Academy

Poppelwell-Scevak Claire (UGent)

Finding the best path over the rainbow: same-sex marriage in the European Court of Human Rights

Sarter Emma (UCLouvain)

Feminism, attitudes towards trans* people and trans* rights: an analysis from the lens of social psychology

CHAIR: Tanja Vuckovic Juros (UCLouvain) & Michiel De Proost (VUB)

This conference is organized by Sophia's Junior Network, which brings together early-career academics who are interested in or focused on feminist research and gender studies in Belgium. Would you like to be part of this network? Do not hesitate to contact us via info@sophia.be.

(RE)CONNECTING GENDER STUDIES: a day to (re)connect early career researchers

PANEL SESSIONS 3 Negotiating social norms and boundaries

Gloesener Justine (ULiège)

Integration of gender issues in the "fabrique urbaine". The place of women in the historical evolution of the Droixhe project

Looman Nika (UGent)

Queering narratives of ageing: older queer women's unruly sexuality-assemblages

Decoster Mattias (UAntwerpen & UGent)

Masculinity as property: Towards a new legal theory on the relationship between gender-based forms of privilege and the law

CHAIR: Caroline Glorie (ULiège) & Vera Cortese (Sophia)